Sanford, North Carolina 27330

Dear WFJA staff:

Just wanted to express my sincere appreciation to each and every one of you for outstanding promotion of the Second Annual WFJA Softball Marathon for Easter Seals. Through your support, twenty-one teams were recruited and raised $4,500 to help physically and multiply handicapped North Carolinians.

It will please you to know that fifteen teams qualified for the specially designed WFJA t-shirts, which means approximately two-hundred and thirty-nine softball players will be seen proudly wearing the WFJA and Easter Seal logos. I might add, many team members complimented the design and quality of the Marathon shirts this year.

Thank you again WFJA. It was a pleasure to work with you and I look forward to the Third Annual WFJA Softball Marathon for Easter Seals.

Sincerely,

Terrie J. Wilkins
Field Representative

Dear Mr. Feindel:

On behalf of the Central Carolina Telephone Pioneers Club, I want to thank WFJA for the support and assistance given us this past weekend during the United Cerebral Palsy Telethon.

Bruce Strickland is a pleasure to work with. Having him broadcast from our Phone Center, adding to and sharing our enthusiasm for the project, assisted us in surpassing our goal. The total pledged amount of $4299 was a good response from Sanford/Lee County.

Thanks again for your assistance.

Dear Richard,

Thank You

The Annual Fund Drive for Central Carolina Community College Foundation has just been completed successfully with your help. This short note is our way of saying "Thank You" for your help and assistance during the past twelve months.

Even though CCCC is a state supported college, state funds will not cover many of the student and faculty needs that we see on a daily basis. However, with help from folks like you who are concerned about the education of our citizens, we continue to make a difference.

Because of your financial assistance the foundation was able to provide many scholarships to needy students. Without your help, many of our students would not have been able to continue their college education and improve their employment possibilities.

Richard, we hope that you will continue to support Central Carolina Community College through the Foundation. There are no national dues to send out of our area and 100% of your donation stays in the community to help our students, staff and faculty.

Sincerely,

Dixon Kilbourne, Executive Director
Central Carolina Community College Foundation

□ Sanford, N.C., sent a truckload of goods south to those hard-hit by the recent tornado

By Rene Stutzman

OF THE SENTINEL STAFF

SANFORD — When residents of Sanford, N.C. — population 14,000 — heard about the killer tornado that swept through Sanford, Fla., last month, they wanted to help.

That help arrived Wednesday night a tractor-trailer rig packed with nonperishable food and household supplies.

"The items were donated by stores, companies, individuals," said Linda Sherron, a volunteer who made the 600-mile trip from Sanford to Sanford.

"We lived through a hurricane a year ago, Hurricane Fran," she said. "That was nothing compared to what these people went through."

Volunteers and jail inmates unloaded the truck Thursday at the Salvation Army office.

It was loaded with sugar, flour, canned goods, diapers, pots and pans, pet food and towels.

"It was a surprise, but a good one," said Sanford Mayor Larry Dale.

"There's no official relationship," Dale said of the two Sanfords. "Just happen to have the same name. And it wasn't that they had some kinfolks down here. It was just out of the goodness of their hearts."

The "Sanford helping Sanford" campaign began at sister radio stations 1050 AM (WWGP) and 105.5 FM (WFJA) in Sanford, N.C.

Managers there persuaded a freight company to donate a trailer, then parked it in front of the station.

The station led each of its 15 daily newscasts with an appeal for help, said Margaret Murchison, director of news and public affairs.

"Every day all day long people were stopping in the lobby," she said.

There were gifts from churches, the local chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, a day care center and high school students.

Said Murchison, "We were so proud when that truck was ready to leave."

TO ALL EMPLOYEES,

We sincerely appreciate the outstanding support your staff of WWGP (AM) 1050/WFJA (FM) 105.5 have continually provided the North Carolina National Guard. We are proud of our relationship with the 100 North Carolina counties where we are located in 75 with 94 armories and we've never forgotten that our first mission is to support the local community. Without your generous contribution of our Non-Commercial Sustaining Announcements, we could not adequately man, equip and train the soldiers necessary for our local, state and federal missions.

With your help, we have maintained a force of over 10,300 soldiers throughout North Carolina who serve part-time and are committed full-time to being ready when needed. We have helped thousands of these citizen-soldiers earn a college degree, receive formal training and gain specialized skills. The National Guard is unique among Armed Services, with a dual mission to the state and nation. With lineage dating to 1636, we are proud to be America's oldest Armed Services.

We know how valuable your airtime is and we humbly appreciate the trust you've placed in us. If we can be of service to you now or in the future, please let us know.
